

2010 Program and Event Schedule Ulster County Historical Society

May 1 - Opening Day

Civil War theme to the day with a special exhibit in our Civil War Room.
Lecture at 4pm, by local historian, John McTague, "Never Forget What They Did Here", on Abe Lincoln and Gettysburg

May 15 - Concert by the Hudson Valley Youth Choral Featuring the Catabile Singers (Grades 2-5) and the Singing Ambassadors (grades 6-8)

The Singing Ambassadors have performed in Europe and are invited to perform in Alaska in 2011. Weather permitting, we will present on the lawn.
Inside if weather is uncooperative

June 5 - "Hudson Valley Ruins: Forgotten Landmarks of an American Landscape", Lecture with authors Rob Yasinac and Thomas Rinaldi

Begins 1 pm

July 3 - "Independence and Ice Cream"

A celebration of the day of US Independence, in the old fashioned way with brass bands and ice cream from local purveyors

July 10 - Basket weaving Workshop with Patti Brousseau

Join us in learning how to make a "Hearth Basket", 12"x18"x14"
Fee of $35 will be charged and keep the basket you make.
9am - 3pm, bring lunch and a blanket to sit on (if nice we'll be outside).
Reservations necessary, limited space call 336-5614

August 21 - The Dutch Fur Trade with the Esopus.

Lecture by John Michael Smith, with excerpts from his book of the same title. Jason Farina will explain his process in the making of the diorama. 3 PM

September 10 - History Trivia

Night with this description: An evening of "puckish fun" and brain exercising. Bring a team or we'll pair you up. Wine and Hors d'oeuvres served. Adults only please. 6-8:30 pm. $5.00 fee per person.

October 2 - Olde World Games day.

A day of celebration in the Olde traditions of gaming and vendor sales.
Beer Garden and food available for purchase. Festivities begin at 1 pm. Will run until 5 pm.
Fees yet to be announced.

October 17 - Annual Meeting

Annual Meeting with a special house tour conducted by Sandy > Levy. Meeting begins at 1pm, Tour to follow. All welcome.

October 23 -
Thanksgiving Education Program

A wonderful presentation of our Education Program for the public.
"Did the Pilgrims really eat Pumpkin Pie" and other historical legends put to rest.
Please see the Education Program link on our website www.bevierhousemuseum.org for details.

Please go to www.bevierhousemuseum.org to see updates to the program schedule.

Updated: September 1, 2010